STEPHEN GOULD

STAT

14 January 1951

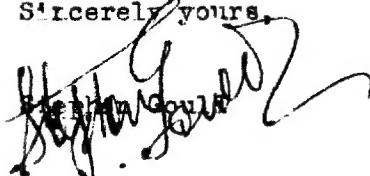

Lt. General W. Bedell Smith, USA.,
The Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

Honored Sir:

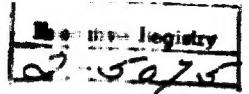

I noted in a news article sometime ago that you are continuing your duty activities in view of the urgency of your interest in present day problems. As a citizen who is grateful to you for the many ways in which you have served our Country, and therefor served me, I am brushing aside the restraining barriers of formality in sending you the enclosed article showing the importance of oxygen in maintaining good health. I hope that after reading this article you will find ways and means of utilizing the benefits of the advice offered by competent authorities in the field of health.

Return of article in due time is requested.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Stephen Gould", with a large, sweeping flourish extending to the right.

19 January 1952

Mr. Stephen Gould

Dear Mr. Gould:

General Smith has asked me to acknowledge your letter of 14 January and to thank you for your kindness in sending Dr. William Brady's article on the importance of proper breathing. The article is returned in accordance with your request.

Sincerely,

/s/

Assistant to the Director
